MONTUMENT
HISTORIQUE

A full day in a unique place, completely immersed in the heart of the Middle Ages!

The Fortress of Montbazan, one of the oldest in France, boasts the oldest standing keep, built in the 10th century by Foulque III Nerra. His son, Geoffroi Martel, added a "small keep" in 1050.

Over time, it passed into the hands of prestigious owners such as Henri II Plantagenêt, Richard Cœur de Lion, and Philippe Auguste, who strengthened the building into a true fortress.

A lively guided tour

Our knights will reveal all the mysteries of the fortress and lead you on a tour filled with captivating anecdotes. Your journey will take you from the keep to the ramparts, down to the underground tunnels and the torture chamber, culminating in an incredible demonstration of a war machine in action!

The Skit

Medieval hygiene will be presented to you in an engaging way, dispelling any misconceptions you might still have about this fascinating era.

Axe Throwing

The Axe Hall offers you a unique experience as you learn the art of throwing axes, knives and shurikens. Imagine the thrill of the challenge, feel the precision in every movement.
